FOR NON-DEGREE-SEEKING ADMISSION

This application has been specifically designed for students who do not intend to complete a degree at Washington State University. Non-degree-seeking students are typically taking courses for personal enrichment, for professional development, or to transfer to another institution. Other reasons you may apply as a non-degree-seeking student include satisfaction of WSU graduate admission prerequisites, satisfaction of undergraduate certificate requirements, or completion of teaching education requirements. Please note, applicants can apply to only one WSU campus per application cycle.

As a non-degree-seeking student, you are not eligible for financial aid and must apply for regular admission status if you later decide to pursue a degree. If you plan to attend Washington State University with an international student visa, you should complete the international application. All applications can be found at apply.wsu.edu. Online applications preferred.
